Guests of the Columbus

NUMISMATIC SOCIETY, COLUMBUS, OHIO

The year 1938 marks the GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY of the Numismatist, the first three volumes of which were published three years before the AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION was organized.

Mr. Donald Heath, son of George Heath, founder of the NUMISMATIST, will be present at the convention and will have with him the original press upon which the first three volumes of THE NUMISMATIST were printed. He will print and distribute souvenirs of the first issue.

GREETINGS FROM OUR CONVENTION CITY

(Office of the Governor, Columbus, Ohio, June 15, 1938)

As Chief Executive of Ohio, it gives me pleasure to extend greetings to the American Numismatic Association on the occasion of their convention in our Capital City, August, 13-18, 1938.

We know you will appreciate the hospitality of Ohio and its Capital City and we have much to offer in the way of entertainment and sight-seeing.

I hope to extend greetings to your convention and meet you personally on the occasion of your visit to our city next August.

Respectfully,
MARTIN L. DAVEY,
Governor of Ohio

(Office of the Mayor, Columbus, Ohio, June 10, 1938)

The City of Columbus extends a most cordial welcome to the delegates and visitors of the American Numismatic Association on the occasion of your convention to be held in our city next August.

You will find a friendly hospitable city, with a typical Ohio Welcome. The official key of the city will be at your disposal and nothing will be left undone to make your convention memorable in the history of your splendid Organization.

Looking forward with anticipation to your presence at the convention, I am

Very truly yours,
MYRON B. GESSAMAN, Mayor
City of Columbus, Ohio

The Columbus Numismatic Society is privileged to be host to the American Numismatic Association on the occasion of the 47th Annual Meeting of Our Association.

We have planned a program of entertainment which we hope you will all enjoy. Our committees have developed plans, which we believe will be acceptable to the membership at large and which will result in your visit to Ohio's Capital City being one of pleasant memory.

We feel especially honored with the presence of the Officers of the American Numismatic Association, together with the personnel of our membership at large throughout the many States which will be represented. We take this opportunity of expressing our gratitude to those who are participating in our exhibit, which we believe will be really interesting and educational.

Our Reception Committee will be on hand to receive you on your arrival and nothing will be overlooked in making this a session of pleasure and profit to every member in attendance.

Cordially yours,
THE COLUMBUS NUMISMATIC SOCIETY
